1. Promise to Pay

The Borrower promises to repay the principal with interest at the rate and on the dates set out above.

2. Prepayment Privileges

Once each year the Borrower may prepay up to 15% of the original principal without charge, and may increase the regular payment by up to 15% once each year. Other prepayments are subject to a charge equal to the greater of three months' interest or the interest rate differential.

3. Property Insurance

The Borrower must keep the property insured against fire and other perils for its full replacement value, with the Lender named as first loss payee, and must provide proof of insurance each year by October 15, and whenever the policy renews or changes.

4. Property Taxes

The Borrower will pay all property taxes when due and provide the Lender with proof of payment by July 31 of each year.

5. Occupancy

The Borrower represents that the property will be owner-occupied as the Borrower's principal residence. The property may not be rented in whole or used as a short-term rental without the Lender's prior written consent.

6. Renewal

The Lender will send a renewal offer at least 21 days before the maturity date. If the mortgage is not renewed or repaid by maturity, the balance becomes due.

7. Default

If a payment is missed or a condition is broken, the full balance may become due. An NSF fee of $45.00 applies to each returned payment.

8. Portability

The Borrower may port this mortgage to a new property within 90 days of selling, subject to approval.
